

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Chapter 93.3

Facing A Dilemma

Shang Jun nodded slightly, "Alright." The sound of the bugle just now should be the sound to gather the army, so Xuanyuan Yi was going to send the troops or You Xiao was invading. No matter which one it was, it would be a fierce battle, especially when the two armies had their own weapons. He had seen the power of those explosives in the past two days.

Shang Xiao walked around the screen just in time to see Murong Shu Qing entering by pushing aside the curtain, so she hurriedly greeted her, took her hand and asked, "Older sister Shu Qing, you are here. Why is it so noisy outside?"

Gently patting her hand, Murong Shu Qing smiled and replied, "Cang Yue's army is invading the border, so they are preparing for battle."

Hearing Murong Shu Qing's voice, Shang Jun whispered, "Qing..."

Murong Shu Qing took Shang Xiao's hand and they crossed the screen and entered the inner room together. Shang Jun's face was still pale, but his spirits looked good. He was holding the head of the bed with one hand, while the other was pressed on his chest, as he was forcing himself to sit up. Shu Qing pressed down on Shang Jun's shoulder to stop him from trying to get out of the bed and asked, "Jun, are you feeling better?"

Shang Jun did not force himself anymore and only sat on the bedside as he smiled and replied, "I'm getting better. I can get out of bed and walk around." In the past two days, he did feel that he had gotten better under the care of Cang Su and Xiu Zhi.

Murong Shu Qing looked around and asked jokingly, "Why do I not see Xiu Zhi?" She heard that he came here to report every day.

Shu Qing's joking words caused Shang Jun's smiling face to instantly become a little embarrassed; even though he stared at her fiercely, there was no way he could do anything to her either. Shang Xiao also grinned and said, "He went to get lunch. It was he who wanted to go!"

Murong Shu Qing lightly bumped Shang Jun's shoulder, and still not letting him go, smiled to say, "What are you thinking; do you plan on not telling him? I can see his struggling heart is very painful oh...!" It was indeed painful as he could not let go of the love in his heart while he struggled with the psychological ideology about this. In addition to this, he also had to guess what kind of relationship there was between her and Shang Jun; all of these were definitely hard. However, seeing that he was running around diligently for Shang Jun and Shang Jun's beauty was a lot better than the so-called worldly principle, she really admired Xiu Zhi even more.

Shang Xiao also shouted lively from the side, "Exactly, exactly, he doesn't want to say it and won't let me say it either!"

She was really moved by Qin Xiu Zhi, as they are both as gentle as jade; one is cultured and the other one is a clear-hearted person, so they were both well-suited. He did not let her talk about it, so she would just try to create an opportunity for them. Older brother Qin is so outstanding and affectionate, she does not believe that he can turn a blind eye forever!

"Xiao Er..." Shang Jun growled softly, causing Shang Xiao to stick out her tongue and hide behind Murong Shu Qing while looking around and pretending she did not see Shang Jun's threatening eyes.

These two people cared too much, so he did not have any option to speak about it anymore. Slightly lowering his head, Shang Jun faintly said, "He... does not suit me."

"Why?" Shu Qing would not allow him to speak carelessly.

Looking up at Shu Qing's stubborn eyes, Shang Jun sighed and replied, "I will not be a good wife. I still have a lot of things to do." If he does not take a revenge for his parents' hatred, he will not be able to sleep peacefully at all; does he (SJ) want him (QXZ) to accompany SJ through the bloody days?

Shang Jun was still isolating himself and did not let anyone approach him, so Shu Qing put her hands on his face and asked, "Do you know what kind of wife he wants?" Xiu Zhi should decide whether or not they are suitable.

Shang Jun wanted to push Shu Qing's hands away, but he did not have the strength at all. Under Qing's persistent and unavoidable eyes, he replied, "I don't know."

Shu Qing raised her eyebrow and asked amusedly, "Then why did you decide that he doesn't want you as a wife?" According to her, Xiu Zhi is very satisfied with Shang Jun and his family will be even more satisfied. Shang Jun's character is very suitable for Hai Yu!

"I..." His face was held by Shu Qing and she was almost holding his head, making him want to move his face away because he could not answer the provocative question.

Shang Xiao did not have as many concerns as Shang Jun since she grinned and said, "That is simply an excuse! He even accepts you as a man, so what else is unacceptable for him?!"

Shang Xiao said it so straightforwardly that Shu Qing could not help but laugh. Shang Jun had been defeated by the two of them, so he astonishedly stroked his forehead before he cried out helplessly annoyed, "Xiao Er..."

Shang Xiao quickly jumped and ran out outside, shouting all the way, "Alright, alright, I'll go to the kitchen to check our meals." If she provoked her older sister that would be bad, because she would be the one to suffer once her sister had recovered from the injuries.

After Shang Xiao left, both of them laughed. Shu Qing patted Shang Jun on the shoulder and asked, "You really don't want to think about it?" Although she is very worried about him, no one can get involved in the matters of affection.

Shang Jun gently shook his head, shrugged, and said helplessly, "It's not the time yet." If they are really destined, maybe he will wait for him (SJ) to avenge.... forget it, he does not want to as it would probably be too long of a time later. Why bother himself?!