Chapter 93.4

Facing A Dilemma

Shang Jun held Murong Shu Qing's hand and asked, "How about you? Why are you worried about the war and Xuanyuan Yi? Did you develop a new weapon called dynamite for them that is very powerful? The commanding officer is General Xuanyuan, so what are you worried about?" When Qing had come in earlier, her brows had been all knotted, and although she had been teasing him just now and looked relaxed, he could still see that Qing was worried.

Murong Shu Qing chuckled slightly; she still couldn't not hide it from Jun, so she got up and walked to the window. Through the thin bamboo curtain, she could see them all busily and orderly assembling outside. It was then that Shu Qing spoke the reason for her unsettled mood these past few days, "I am worried because of these explosives."

"Why did you say that?"

"The innovation of each new type of weapon means that the situation will change substantially during any war, even changing the structure of the world. If it were not for the ambition of Cang Yue's monarch and the fact that they already have the technology to make these explosives, I would definitely not help Dong Yu make them."

"You are worried that with these explosives the Emperor of Dong Yu will not stay quiet and want to take over the world?" This was very possible; when everything was not within reach, one could say that they would not think about it in their hearts. But when everything was at your fingertips, which monarch would not be able to disregard this ambition?!

Murong Shu Qing shook her head lightly and sighed, "He is the only one who has the heart to unite the world. In fact, what I am most worried about is that I will have more troubles from now on." Since Cang Yue was able to make explosives, even without her help, the war would still enter the era of explosives. The outcome of who would be victorious during the war was the only thing that was different.

She has no intention of helping the world, but now it seems she is destined to be unable to take care of herself! The sun was now shining through the bamboo curtain as it reflected mottled light on her body. Murong Shu Qing stretched out her hand and could feel the brightness of the sun, but not its temperature.

Looking at Qing's back, Shang Jun felt her inner helplessness, so he held onto the edge of the bed to slowly get up. Although it was somewhat difficult, Shang Jun still walked behind Shu Qing and embraced her shoulders to comfort her. People living in this world would always have this kind of helplessness and sadness, but it could not overwhelm the persistence in their hearts. The two looked at each other and smiled without saying anything anymore.

Shu Qing saw that he was having difficulty standing, so she stretched out her hands to gently support Shang Jun's waist, but in the eyes of Xiu Zhi who had just entered, the two were embracing each other.

Qin Xiu Zhi looked at them blankly; they were so well-suited. Shang Jun only smiled softly and gently when he faced Shu Qing. He thought that he was already used to it, but it seemed that he still could not control his own sorrow and sadness. He was willing to not pay attention to the secular world for him (SJ), but he (SJ) had already chosen a beautiful woman.

Shu Qing looked over at Xiu Zhi standing motionless by the screen and found him staring at her while she was supporting Shang Jun and suddenly realized why his face looked worse than Shang Jun. Shu Qing looked at Shang Jun with astonishment, but he only just shrugged his shoulders indifferently. Shu Qing took one glance at him while helping him (SJ) to sit back down before she called out, "Xiu Zhi."

Qin Xiu Zhi came back to his senses and saw that Shang Jun had already sat down by the bed with Murong Shu Qing looking at him with a smile on her face. Qin Xiu Zhi also raised a faint smile and said, "Shu Qing, you are here too ah. I didn't know it."

His (SJ) face had improved a lot and it was probably because of Shu Qing. Putting down the tray in his hands, Qin Xiu Zhi said to Shu Qing, "Sit down for a while and I'll get another meal." He sighed softly in his heart; forget it, maybe he could do what he had said before, to always be his friend.

"Xiu Zhi, don't worry about it. I want to return to the tent since I was out for a long time and Lu Yi should be worried about me."

Judging from his dark and gloomy mood, she knew that he must have misunderstood, but Jun was reluctant to explain anything, so she did not know how to explain either. She just went ahead and let the both of them stare at each other with their eyes. Shu Qing turned her back to Xiu Zhi and made an expression indicating to Shang Jun to deal with this however he wanted.

Shu Qing turned her back to Xiu Zhi and made an expression indicating to Shang Jun to deal with this however he wanted, and smilingly said, "Jun, rest properly. I'm leaving now."

Shang Jun chuckled, nodded his head, and said, "En." This person is slipping away so quickly!

When Shu Qing walked past the screen, she patted Xiu Zhi on his shoulder and said in a low voice, "Don't give up!"

She left confidently, but Qin Xiu Zhi blankly stared at her back unable to react for a little bit. Shu Qing clearly and repeatedly suggested this, so what did it mean?

After spending some time in the army camp, he knew that Shu Qing and Xuanyuan Yi were a couple. Especially in these past two days, he saw Xuanyuan Yi more than once holding Shu Qing's hand during the night to send her back to her tent. It was obvious that they are a couple. With Shu Qing repeatedly hinting at him like this, was it just to make him take care of Shang Jun? With Shu Qing's intelligence, it was not difficult to read his mind, but is he not a man? In the eyes of the world, how terrifying would this be?! If Shu Qing married Xuanyuan Yi, then what about Shang Jun?!

Even if Shu Qing deliberately lowered her voice, Shang Jun could still hear her clearly and he could see in his heart that Shu Qing had caused him trouble before leaving.

Sian's notes:

Oh my gosh! QXZ is willing to press on to be with our family SJ. How sweet!!!
