Chapter 94.1

Kidnapping

Qin Xiu Zhi stared at Shu Qing's departing back while his white face displayed a trace of red color. After a long silence, Shang Jun felt helpless and could only ask, "Can we eat now?"

"Huh? Oh, alright." After regaining his senses, Shang Jun looked at him in amusement. Qin Xiu Zhi was a little embarrassed, so he hurriedly arranged the food and replied, "If you are hungry, eat first. I will wait until Xiao Xiao comes back to eat together."

Shang Jun raised his head and looked outside the window, but he did not see any shadow of Shang Xiao so he sat down at the table. While he was passing the chopsticks to Xiu Zhi, Shang Jun said, "No need to wait, I don't know where she went again. The weather is cold so let's eat it while it's still hot. When she comes back, she can reheat it herself." This stinky girl who had just made him angry might not dare to come back for the time being.

"Alright." As he sat down opposite Shang Jun and watched him eat with a calm face, Qin Xiu Zhi raised his bowl several times and put it back down several times, before he finally put down the bowl and chopsticks to say in a deep voice, "Shang Jun, there is one thing that I want to ask you."

"What is it?" Shang Jun lifted up his head and stared at him full seriousness. Although his face was calm, Shang Jun's heart was beating wildly. What does he want to say to him? Is it...

When the words came to his lips, Qin Xiu Zhi stammered nervously due to Shang Jun's clear and bright eyes, "You, you and Shu Qing, you guys..."

After talking for a long time, Shang Jun only heard a few intermittent words and vaguely heard that the matter he was asking about was related to Shu Qing. Shang Jun felt a little more settled and said with a smile, "You think about your words first in order to speak clearly, otherwise I can't understand what you are trying to say."

Qin Xiu Zhi was embarrassed; he wanted to ask about the relationship between Shang Jun and Shu Qing, but the more questions he had, the more he really could not understand it. He originally thought that they were a loving couple, but he later found out that Shu Qing had someone else in her heart. So, did Shang Jun not know or was he pretending not to know about this? After careful consideration, Qin Xiu Zhi hesitantly asked, "Shu Qing is Xuanyuan Yi's fiancée, you know about this, right?"

Shang Jun nodded and calmly replied, "Yes, they were engaged before they were born and will be married after the end of the war." He had heard about the famous name of Xuanyuan Yi for a long time now and it seems that person is indeed resolute and determined, with high martial arts. They can be regarded as well-matched in social status too; he a talented man and she a beautiful woman. Speaking of Qing's appearance, Shang Jun could not help but laugh. He personally felt that even though Qing's appearance is not that gorgeous, but she is such a beautiful and elegant woman. She actually makes people who look at her feel comfortable, but she always laughs at her own mediocre appearance.

Seeing him smile as he said that sentence, Qin Xiu Zhi was even more puzzled, "You don't mind it?"

Should he mind it?! Facing Qin Xiu Zhi's worry and doubts, Shang Jun suddenly realized that it was hard to say that he did not mind it. He just shook his head and replied sincerely, "It's good that she's happy." He hopes that everyone around him will be happy. Both Shang Xiao and Shu Qing should be happy.

"Then, what about your happiness?!" Qin Xiu Zhi frowned; how could he say his foremost thoughts like this? Then why did he see bitterness and loneliness within his (SJ) calm smile?!

Shang Jun wanted to answer but he did not know how to answer this question, so he just lowered his head and continued to eat, unwilling to answer anymore.

Misunderstanding Shang Jun's silence as heartache, Qin Xiu Zhi's eyes flickered as he was staring at Shang Jun's silent, side profile and asked, "Besides Shu Qing, can you accept others?!"

Even though he tried his best to control his voice, his tone was still a bit too eager, so Shang Jun's heart became tense. If at this time, he still could not feel Qin Xiu Zhi's intentions for him, he would be too slow, but how does he feel about this?! Shang Jun still did not look up and only replied coldly, "I don't know. I still have a lot of things to do, so I don't want to think about any relationship for now." He could not afford to think about it either!

He still could not let go of Shu Qing. It doesn't matter; he originally planned not to disturb his life anyway, but he had never really wanted to let go. The person who truly deserves him should be another beautiful woman, even if it were not Shu Qing.

In the end, let him be selfish again and stay with him (SJ) until he (SJ) could find the one he (SJ) loves. At that time, he could take this memory and leave him (SJ) alone. With a decision made in his heart, Qin Xiu Zhi relaxed a little and replied faintly, "I understand."

He understood?! What did he understand ah!?! Shang Jun suddenly felt a pulsating headache. He (SJ) does not even know what he really wants!! Heavens! He's going crazy! Who will tell him why the matters between a man and a woman are so complicated?!

In the days after that day, Qin Xiu Zhi never mentioned those things again. He still served him daily and chatted and played chess with him. The ambiguous atmosphere that was faintly felt a few days ago, was no longer there.

Shang Jun lightly held a black piece and slowly put it down as Qin Xiu Zhi effortlessly responded. His injury had healed a lot and today was the day of the decisive battle between Dong Yu and Cang Yue, but he was still in the mood to play chess. In fact, he had made a comparison; You Xiao had already shown his skills and Xuanyuan Yi had also experienced his talents, so if there were no accidents, Xuanyuan Yi should win this war.

Sian's notes:

What do you think about QXZ's "confession"? Lol...

Sorry, SJ, you're the one who makes 'the matters between a man & woman' more complicated than it should've! You think too much! You should let your beloved know what's in your mind & let him make a decision whether or not he should accompany you in your pursuit of revenge. That's my two cents... 😊
