

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Chapter 94.2

As the two people were getting towards the end of their game, suddenly the curtain of the tent was rudely opened, before Lu Yi stumbled inside and yelled, "Master Shang, Master Shang!"

Shang Xiao hurriedly got up, took hold of the flustered Lu Yi, and asked, "Older sister Lu Yi, what's wrong with you?!"

Looking at her messy hair and bloodstained neck, Shang Jun felt a bad premonition in his heart as he asked, "Is something wrong with Shu Qing?!"

Before she could catch her breath, Lu Yi anxiously said, "Miss, Miss is missing." When she woke up, she was on the floor inside the tent next to the corpses of the two secret bodyguards. There was no trace of Miss at all within this army camp and since both Gentleman Xuanyuan and Gentleman Pei were not here, she could only ask for help from Master Shang.

"What?!"

Lu Yi's words shocked everyone inside the tent. Thinking back to what Shu Qing had said the other day, Shang Jun felt shocked. Is it true, just as Shu Qing had expected, that the dispute caused by the explosives has already begun?! Who was it and how come it started so fast?

Shang Xiao asked in disbelief, "How is it possible? Older sister Shu Qing has always been inside the tent!" How could a living adult person go missing just like this?!

Yes ah! Inside this army camp that was so tightly guarded, how could anybody take a person away without being seen? It could be said then that these people were extraordinary people. Shu Qing, where are you?! His heart was anxious, and this anxiousness caused him to feel suffocated. As he stroked his chest forcefully, Shang Jun's breath was unstable, but he still insisted on getting up. Qin Xiu Zhi held his arm and said in a low voice, "Shang Jun, don't worry, we'll send someone first to find her. They should not have gone too far."

The deep voice slowly spoke in his ear, calming him, so Shang Jun gratefully nodded to him and loudly called out, "Someone come!"

"I am here." Yang Zhong opened the curtain and appeared inside the tent.

Shang Jun orderly commanded, "Arrange people to immediately chase in all four directions towards the east, south, west and north; do not let any carriage or three or more caravans slip by. Moreover, seal off Lin Feng Guan border." He absolutely could not let them send Shu Qing out of Dong Yu, otherwise she would be in a far more dangerous situation. Even though one would need an official document to seal off Lin Feng Guan border, but based on his ability, it would not be too difficult to seal it off for several days. For Shu Qing, he would not care about these things.

"Yes." Yang Zhong accepted the order and left.

Shang Xiao comforted Lu Yi's frightened heart, as Shang Jun looked at Lu Yi's flustered face. He was afraid that he would not be able to ask Lu Yi anything, so he said, "I am going to Shu Qing's tent." Perhaps some clues could be found there.

With Shang Jun's cold face, Xiu Zhi knew that he looked calm and cool-headed, but his heart must be very anxious for Shu Qing. When he put his hand on his chest from time to time, it let him know that Shang Jun's wound was hurting again. Sighing, Qin Xiu Zhi said, "I'll go and accompany you." He also viewed Shu Qing as his own close relative, so if she had an unexpected mishap, he was also anxious for her.

A group of people urgently went over to her tent and found the desk and chairs in a mess as if there had been a fight. Shang Jun carefully looked at everything inside the room, while he asked, "Lu Yi, do not panic and tell me what happened."

Shang Xiao had been constantly holding Lu Yi's hand, so her beating and helpless heart felt a little calmer. She must calm down, otherwise she would not be able to help Miss, so Lu Yi took a deep breath and carefully recalled what had happened as she said, "This afternoon, Xiao Rong brought over chicken soup, then Miss asked me to go to your place to take the chess book and then afterwards, I fainted. When I woke up, Miss was already gone!"

Once she finished speaking, Lu Yi could not help but let her tears fall again as Shang Xiao used a handkerchief to wrap Lu Yi's bleeding neck, while comforting her, "Older sister Lu Yi, you do not need to be too anxious because older sister Shu Qing is very intelligent, so she will be unlikely to have an accident. You can be at ease!" Even though she said it like this, after seeing traces of fighting inside the tent along with the two secret bodyguard corpses at the side of the unlikely to have an accident. You can be at ease! Even though she said it like this, after seeing traces of fighting inside the tent along with the two secret bodyguard corpses at the side of the low table, older sister Shu Qing's safety was unclear, and it was causing people to feel anxious. However, she said those things in order to comfort Lu Yi and to also comfort herself!

So, it was in the afternoon? In that case, it has already been four hours. He wished that they had not left Lin Feng Guan border. It did not appear there were any clues from Lu Yi because she had fainted before she could understand anything. Since Shu Qing asked her to go and take the chess book, she should have already seen the other person, but who was that person who had kidnapped her? Looking at the secret bodyguard corpses again, there were fatal wounds on them, "Dead leaf sword?!"

The edge of the sword was as thin as a willow leaf allowing it to cut through the bone deeply. The people who used these dead leaf swords were Jiang Hu's top sixth rank killers. They were a team of four people who mutually worked together and rarely made miscalculations. But what kind of person would want to use these killers to kidnap Qing?!!

Shang Jun was still deep in thought when the sound of horses hoofbeats and cheering came over from outside the tent. It seemed that he guessed correctly, Xuanyuan Yi must have had a victory this time. But, with one glance at the messy tent, Shang Jun tightly clenched both of his hands into fists.

Qin Xiu Zhi patted Shang Jun's shoulder and said somewhat anxiously, "It looks like Xuanyuan Yi has returned."

"En." He returned, but Shu Qing was kidnapped, so he was afraid that Xuanyuan Yi's anger could burn the tent!!