Chapter 100.2

Meeting San Er Again (Part 1)

Yu Han and He Cheng looked at each other and then looked at Shang Jun somewhat confused. Shang Jun was staring straight at Nan Shan mountain as he saw a few dark shadows moving between the dark peaks. As the several shadows moved, their movements were somewhat strange, and not too long after, they leapt on to the wall and joined them. The person standing at the front was Ye Yan.

After rushing over to Shang Jun, Ye Yan softly said, "Gentleman, I met a group of people at the top of the peak and they insisted on seeing Gentleman." These people have weird martial arts and behave secretly, but he felt that they are not malicious towards the gentleman.

Shang Jun looked behind him and saw a few men in silver-gray outfits, just standing far away, with extraordinary vibes. The leader walked up to Shang Jun and asked, "Are you gentleman Shang Jun?"

"Yes."

The man replied respectfully and said in a deep voice, "Behind Nan Shan Mountain bypassing the thicket, there is a small road leading to the city. A carriage is ready, so Gentleman, please leave."

Shang Jun was not in a hurry to leave and asked, "Who are you?"

The man did not shy away, "Wu Sheng Men organization, Liu Yun, I am here by the order of the master to help the Gentleman."

Wu Sheng Men organization? Did Yu Feng ask Wu Sheng Men organization for help after receiving his news?! No matter what, they are willing to help so there is hope to escape (from this situation). Shang Jun neatly ordered, "Ye Yan, you go and help Xi Mu, tie the prepared arrows to the horse's tails, drive them to the east and west directions and set fire to burn the courtyard. Finish these tasks immediately and then follow us up."

"Yes."

Pulling Qin Xiu Zhi, Shang Jun followed Liu Yun to the Nan Shan Mountain as he looked up to see a full moon. Although Nan Shan Mountain was not high, it was still over 33 meters tall. Fortunately, there were ten ropes hanging down from the mountain and it was not difficult to go up at all.

Holding Xiu Zhi's arm, Shang Jun wanted to lead him forward, but when he took a deep breath to climb up, his chest tightened and Shang Jun grunted in pain. Qin Xiu Zhi urgently asked, Shang Jun, how are you doing?"

Shang Jun shook his head and barely showed a smile when he replied, "It's alright, I'll let them take you up later."

"Then how about you...?" How is he going to jump up like this?

After a wave of pain passed, Shang Jun secretly adjusted his breath and it seemed that it was not too painful. Shang Jun smiled and said, "This short peak can't bother me, don't worry!" He doesn't like being held by others and any physical contact may expose him, so he should try to avoid it as much as he could.

Taking Qin Xiu Zhi to Liu Yun's side, Shang Jun asked, "Liu Yun, will you help me take him up?" Among these people, he felt that Liu Yun had the strongest and most powerful personality, so his martial arts should also be the best. If he agrees, then Xiu Zhi would be able to safely go up.

"Yes." Liu Yun did not shirk and only said to the person behind him, "Liu Guang, protect Gentleman Shang."

"En." Liu Guang took his order and stood behind Shang Jun, waiting for him to come forward and follow him.

Shang Jun was grateful for Liu Yun's thoughtfulness, as he smiled and said, "Thank you."

"You don't have to be polite, the master has ordered, so he will do his best to protect Gentleman and not allow any mistake."

This..... Shang Jun is a little bit puzzled; does he and the leader of the Wu Sheng Men organization know each other?! Just looking at the degree of their respect and protection of him, Shang Jun almost thought that he had a close relationship with the sect master! Feeling amused by his suspicions, Shang Jun shook his head and said with a smile, "Go up first and let's talk about it later."

Fortunately, Liu Yun and the others had already arranged the rope when they had come down. With the help of the rope, it was not difficult to go up the mountain. It was just that Shang Jun's injuries were getting worse these days, so he still panted several times along the way. When he reached the top of the mountain, Shang Jun saw that the small courtyard below the mountain was already on fire, so Xi Mu and Ye Yan should have also rushed over, and his heart finally relaxed somewhat.

After a vertical leap, Shang Jun reached the top of the mountain first.

Under the mountain peak, the Iron Armored Army had come to the official road and surrounded it. The small courtyard was already on fire, so it temporarily blocked the view of the Iron Armored Army, allowing Shang Jun and the others to go up Nan Shan mountain one after another. Yu Han thought about it and loudly said, "There are many soldiers, so we will also go with them." In any case, this was their only opportunity to live!

With an order from Yu Han, everyone abandoned their horses and climbed up the whole way.

The top of Nan Shan Mountain was not too wide. After Shang Jun came up, he found several people standing at the top checking whether the ropes were firm and watching the situation below. Upon seeing Shang Jun climb up, they clasped their hands to salute and bowed. Shang Jun smiled and nodded, while his heart became more and more puzzled.

The sky was still dark, so the top of the mountain should have also been pitch black. Fortunately, he could faintly see these people at the top of the mountain due to the blazing fire lighting up the sky from the bottom of the mountain. While Shang Jun was wondering about the matter with the Wu Sheng Men organization, a tall, long figure came up and approached him. With the blazing fire behind this figure, Shang Jun could not see his face clearly. Standing in front of him, the man suddenly opened his hands and took Shang Jun into his arms. Shang Jun was startled at first and then became furious. Just as he was about to make a move, there was a familiar male voice that whispered in his ear, rather depressed and faintly heartbroken, "Don't move!"

The familiar but unfamiliar voice with the faint refreshing fragrance and overbearing, stubborn sort of behavior, all evoked a memory in Shang Jun. With some uncertainty, Shang Jun's voice trembled slightly as he called out the name he had always missed in his heart, "San Er .....is it you?"

Sian's notes:

Wohoo... my San Er is finally back!!! I bet he's a lot more mature now & my guess was correct in the previous chapter.... San Er is the new leader of Wu Sheng Men organization !!! Wohooo... out immature San Er has become a leader of a sect!!! I'm so proud of him...
