Chapter 101.1

Meeting San Er Again (Part 2)

The night breeze on the top of the mountain was extremely cold as it swirled the sleeves of their clothes in the air. The man did not respond for a long, long time so Shang Jun almost thought that he had acknowledged the wrong person. But his slightly chaotic breathing and thunderous pulsing heart made him feel so familiar, that he really felt the person who was holding him (SJ) tightly in his arms right now was the reckless young man from back then.

The man tightened his arms and firmly wrapped them on his (SJ) waist; his low but pleasant voice made one's heart to beat, as he softly said with some anger in his tone, "You lost weight again!"

It was him! He was the only one who could be so domineering and awkward like this. Shang Jun gently pushed Xiao Zong Qing away and looked at his face. Under the light of the fire, the handsome face in his memory still had sword like eyebrows, star like eyes, a proud nose and thin lips. But it was a little different this time; he had a sharper knife-cut stone face, a pair of deep eyes that were calm but cold and his extraordinary temperament was no longer comparable to the past. After four years of absence, he had also grown taller, just half a head taller than him (SJ).

"San Er, is it really you?!" Shang Jun was overjoyed when he saw San Er again and did not pay any attention to the hands that Xiao Zong Qing kept around his waist for a while. But Qin Xiu Zhi, who had just reached the top of the mountain, was shocked by this scene and could not say a word. Was that Shang Jun? He was hugged by a cold and arrogant man with a surprise smile on his (SJ) face. He could not mistake the affectionate smile on the man's face with his protective gesture. Qin Xiu Zhi heard his heart pounding wildly as the night wind blew on his face and it was painful.

Xiao Zong Qing also felt an overly focused gaze not too far away, so he looked up and saw a beautiful man who was slightly better looking than Shang Jun. He stood alone in an ink-colored gown and looked extremely elegant. Xiao Zong Qing did not like the way he looked at Shang Jun; he did not like it very much. Under this man's quiet gaze, he was inexplicably restless, so he held Shang Jun tighter.

It was then that Shang Jun realized that he was still in Xiao Zong Qing's arms and under his dissatisfied eyes, he gently pushed away his (XZQ) hands. It was just that Shang Jun kept his back to Xiu Zhi, so he did not know that there had been a gazing duel between the two of them just now.

After everyone came up, Liu Yun replied, "Master, all the people have come up and the Iron Armored Army is also approaching Nan Shan Mountain."

Master?! Shang Jun frowned; the new Master of the Wu Sheng Men organization is actually San Er?! Shang Jun looked at him again; his expression was cold and his eyes were sharp, so this person does not seem to be the San Er from his impression, but rather he is somewhat unfamiliar...

Looking at the hundreds of people and horses down the mountain, his eyes swept over to Yu Han who had just reached the top of the mountain before Xiao Zong Qing coldly said, "Cut the ropes and leave immediately."

"Yes."

Not paying any attention to the gazes of everyone behind him, Xiao Zong Qing took Shang Jun's hand and walked over to the only carriage and said, "Jun, you take the carriage."

Shang Jun wanted to withdraw his hand, but San Er had a lot of strength. It was not that he could not remove San Er's hands at all, but if he just pulled out in front of everyone, that would not be good so Shang Jun just gave up, let him pull his hand and stood still in front of the carriage. Shang Jun did not rush to get on the carriage, but searched for someone amongst the crowd. He finally saw Xiu Zhi, so Shang Jun smiled and said, "Xiu Zhi, you take the carriage too!" Although the precipice from the other side of Nan Shan mountain was not that steep, but after all, he did not have any martial arts and the night wind was bitterly cold.

A flash of light flashed in Xiao Zong Qing's eyes and he could not see what it was, but he did not say anything.

Qin Xiu Zhi raised a faint smile, shook his head and replied, "No, I'm ready to ride a horse."

"Okay, then you should be careful." Since Xiu Zhi said so, Shang Jun could not say anything anymore and got into the carriage. The carriage was very spacious, with a soft couch that was covered with a thick plush fur, which looked warm and comfortable.

Xiao Zong Qing followed Shang Jun into the carriage and the carriage immediately galloped forward. Shang Jun leaned on the soft couch and found it was indeed very comfortable. Even if the carriage went fast, there were no bumps.

Xiao Zong Qing sat down beside the soft couch, looked out of the carriage and asked point blank, "Who is he?"

Shang Jun had long known that he would ask, so he calmly replied, "Qin Xiu Zhi." He did not explain the rest, because he did not need to explain. Since he is the Master of Wu Sheng Men Organization, shouldn't he know almost everything?

Qin Xiu Zhi! This name was not known and he was not a person whom he had been paying any attention to, but starting from today, he will always pay attention to his movements. His intuition told him that this person will be his biggest opponent, so Xiao Zong Qing secretly wrote down his name so he could remember.

After being quiet in the carriage for a while, Shang Jun looked at Xiao Zong Qing and said, "San Er, I want to ask you to help me with something." He has been looking for her for seven or eight days, and there is still no news of Shu Qing. With San Er's help, maybe there would be news soon.

Sian's notes:

Wohooo... my guess was spot on!!! San Er is the new leader of the "spy" organization after Bi Xian left for Hai Yu. 🥰🥰

LOL.... gazing duel between XZQ & QXZ!!! Who wins?? 😊
