

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Chapter 101.2

Meeting San Er Again (Part 2)

"Looking for Murong Shu Qing?" Without waiting for Shang Jun to explain, Xiao Zong Qing had guessed what he was going to ask. His relationship with that woman named Murong Shu Qing was a bit too good.

He knows Murong Shu Qing? Then there must be news about her, so Shang Jun said anxiously, "Where is she?"

Xiao Zong Qing put his hands on the back of his head and lazily replied, "She is in Dong Yu, so you don't have to worry about her, as there are many people looking for her. Murong Shu Qing was moved around a lot, but she won't die and no one really wants her to die." Although Murong Shu Qing is a tricky person, he still has to thank her for bringing Shang Jun to Cang Yue and back to his side.

It turned out that Shu Qing is in Dong Yu. No wonder he could not find her. Shang Jun secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Dong Yu has Yan Yu, Cang Su and Xuanyuan Yi, so Shu Qing should be alright.

After knowing the whereabouts of Shu Qing, Shang Jun could finally put his heart down, so he looked at Xiao Zong Qing and asked, "After Bi Xian left, you actually took over Wu Sheng Men organization?" He was always a pampered third young master of the Xiao family, so why would he enter Wu Sheng Men organization?

"En." Xiao Zong Qing responded with a light hum. He did not want to say what he had experienced in Wu Sheng Men organization in these past few years, because Shang Jun did not need to know about that.

He did not want to elaborate, so Shang Jun was a little disappointed. Although they did not talk about everything before, but they did not talk like this either...

"Why didn't you want to see me over these past few years?" He offered to meet with the Master of Wu Sheng Men organization three or four times before, but all had been rejected. He did not know it was San Er, but now that he knew this, Shang Jun was a little confused. He actually did not want to see him at all?!

After a long time and just when Shang Jun thought he would not answer, Xiao Zong Qing turned around. In his deep eyes, there was a light that Shang Jun did not quite understand the meaning of it. His low voice calmly said, "I told myself to wait until I am able to help you fulfill your wishes, to protect you from harm and take care of you for the rest of your life; to wait until I am qualified to stand with you. Now, I have achieved it."

Shang Jun was in a daze. He was not used to this kind of San Er. He was too calm, as if this was his belief and did not need to be loudly emphasized. It was just that such a calm like this actually made Shang Jun flustered. After thinking about it, Shang Jun said, "San Er... I am very happy to see you grow up and have something of your own, but you don't need to do anything for me. I will do and deal with my affairs, and will take care of myself, so you don't need to worry."

He tried to push him aside again, so Xiao Zong Qing was secretly amused; did he really think that he was still that petrified youngster from back then? The corners of his lips were raised and Xiao Zong Qing looked at Shang Jun teasingly as he said with a sneer, "Did you take care of yourself until you got injured like this? Did you take care of yourself until you were gasping for air like this? The Shang Jun whom I know is full of spirit with exceptional skills. What about now? You have done enough tormenting yourself, so I will do and complete it for you in the future."

He seems to have said that after the revenge, he will be like an ordinary woman, and it is really worth looking forward to.

Shang Jun smiled bitterly. As expected, his character is difficult to change. Domination is still in his character, but this time it is even more difficult to convince him. Shang Jun sat upright and was ready to talk to him, "San Er, you don't understand..."

Without waiting for him to continue, Xiao Zong Qing replied leisurely, "You want Long Qu Mu to die. This is your wish; do I understand this?"

"You...how would you know this?!" Shang Jun was shocked! Did he actually underestimate him? What else does San Er know? Does he already know his life experiences? That being the case, San Er should know the danger and why he does not want anyone to be involved in it!

Seeing Shang Jun's surprised expression, Xiao Zong Qing lightly sighed and suddenly felt a little weak. Did he not express himself clearly enough at that time, or did he just ignore his sincerity to such an extent?! Holding Shang Jun's cold hand, Xiao Zong Qing sighed, "Jun, what do you think I have been doing for the past four years? Why do you think I wanted to take over Wu Sheng Men organization? What did you think the reason was why I abandoned the Xiao family business, traveled all over the world and the purpose of dealing with those officials? There was only one reason for all this."

That is, you! Xiao Zong Qing did not say this, but Shang Jun clearly heard the voice in his heart. This time, he did not make a big noise anymore and did not yell angrily, but Shang Jun was really panicking. He was surrounded by such strong emotions and felt a little suffocated...

The carriage was still running vigorously, but the time in the carriage seemed to stand still, until another male voice rang out from outside the carriage, "Master, the Iron Armored Army has bypassed Nan Shan Mountain from east and west, intending to encircle the mountain."

Xiao Zong Qing pulled up a long, thin quilt and helped Shang Jun cover up with it, before softly saying, "Alright, your complexion is very bad, so you should sleep for a while since you are tired."

"San Er, wait..." Xiao Zong Qing turned before he was about to go out of the carriage and Shang Jun came back to his senses. The Iron Armored Army still refused to give up, so he (SJ) wanted to sit up and discuss with him about how to retreat.

Xiao Zong Qing stood by the carriage door, raised his eyebrows lightly to look at Shang Jun and said with a smile, "You should lie down obediently, or is it that you would like for me to sleep with you?"

Shang Jun stiffened. Darn it! He dared to threaten him (SJ) like this!! If the look in his eyes could hurt people, Xiao Zong Qing would have been battered and bruised already.

Seeing him frozen and motionless, Xiao Zong Qing laughed and got out of the carriage in a good mood.

Staring at the proud figure that was leaving, Shang Jun collapsed weakly on the soft couch. What would he do when facing such a San Er?! How to deal with him...

Sian's notes:

Lol... I love this kind of San Er!!! He has improved so much in four years... even though his stubborn & naughty personalities are still in there. This makes him better as he can make SJ speechless and is unable to do anything but to obey San Er. Thumb up from me!!! They're definitely able to stand side by side now...