

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Chapter 102.1

Prince Rui

Leaning on the soft couch, Shang Jun was very confused thinking about their situation. It wasn't that he was worried San Er would not be able to deal with the Iron Armored Army, but he did not say how he had become the Master of Wu Sheng Men organization. Shang Jun guessed that he would have a lot of hardships. There was no success that did not require one's efforts, so his ability was naturally pretty high. What he was confused and thinking about now, was what he should do next.

The sky outside the carriage curtain gradually brightened and the faint light was shining through the curtain onto Shang Jun's face. He gently opened the curtain; the carriage had slowed down a lot from when they first started from the mountain peak. From here, one could already see the gate of the city and it seemed that San Er would go into the city to avoid the Iron Armored Army.

Slowly lowering the curtain, Shang Jun closed his eyes. Shu Qing is in Dong Yu now, so naturally someone will rescue her, then what about him? Should he return to Lin Feng Guan border and continue to wait for the opportunity or to sneak into Tian Cheng City and create opportunities? After a long time passed Shang Jun opened his eyes. It has been five years, he has waited for five years, so it has been long enough. He does not want to wait any longer, so let him bet this one time.

The carriage entered the city and as the gate opened, there were no other people on the street. They crossed the city gate smoothly and after several rounds, the carriage drove to the side door of a richly decorated courtyard. Shang Jun glanced at the lintel-crimson... Huan Cui Pavilion.

It's a brothel!

He has been in business for many years, and he naturally knows that the most famous place in the You Cheng City was Wu Sheng Men organization's businesses.

The carriage stopped inside the courtyard and Shang Jun immediately got out of the carriage. The courtyard was not small. Looking around, Liu Yun was talking to a woman in her early thirties. He did not see San Er, but saw Qin Xiu Zhi coming down immediately, so Shang Jun walked over, smiled and said. "Xiu Zhi, let me tell you a piece of news. Shu Qing is not in Cang Yue and it is not life threatening at the moment. I believe Xuanyuan Yi and the others will try their best to rescue her."

Qin Xiu Zhi nodded, smiled and replied, "It is indeed good news."

Qin Xiu Zhi reluctantly smiled, so Shang Jun anxiously asked, "Your complexion is not so good, are you feeling uncomfortable?" No wonder, it was such a cold snowy night, so only a few people could stand riding a horse for two hours, not to mention that they had been traveling nonstop for several hours now.

"It's nothing, I'm fine. But you should find a doctor to check on you." Although he does not know any martial arts, his body is strong enough. If he has to say that he is uncomfortable, maybe it is because he feels uncomfortable, so Qin Xiu Zhi laughs at himself.

"Jun, are you feeling uncomfortable?" A tense male voice sounded from behind Shang Jun. Shang Jun turned his head and a big hand came to touch his forehead. Shang Jun turned his head uncomfortably, trying to answer that he was fine. But Xiao Zong Qing had already said to Liu Guang behind him, "Liu Guang, please invite a physician."

"Yes."

Shang Jun opened his mouth and then closed it. Even if he said that he is fine, San Er will still do it according to his own thoughts anyway.

Xiao Zong Qing took off his fur cloak, draped it lightly on Shang Jun's shoulders and whispered with a pampering soft voice, "If you feel uncomfortable in the future, tell me immediately."

Although his voice was not loud, it was loud enough for Qin Xiu Zhi to hear it clearly. Qin Xiu Zhi's body stiffened and his hands slowly turned into fists before he slowly released them. He could not tell how he feels in his heart; from the moment he saw this man, he has been very upset, sad and even angry, which is rare for him. This feeling is different from seeing Shang Jun and Shu Qing standing together. Is it because the person standing next to Shang Jun this time is a man?! He is a little confused.

Xiao Zong Qing had acted as if there was nobody around them and it made Shang Jun feel very uncomfortable. After taking a step back, Shang Jun calmly replied, "I know my own body, so you don't need to worry."

Xiao Zong Qing raised his eyebrows lightly, stopped approaching and smiled to say, "We are going to hide for a while. When the Iron Armored Army is not chasing us so closely anymore, we will return to Tian Cheng City." Jun, I will slowly make you adapt to my presence every day I am around you.

"En."

"This is Gentleman Qin, right?" Xiao Zong Qing seemed to have only just seen Qin Xiu Zhi and smiled as he said, "I am Xiao Zong Qing. Jun said that you helped him a lot along the way. Thank you for taking care of him." He said it as if he really had a good personal relationship with Shang Jun.

His mouth was saying thank you, but the smell of gunpowder was not difficult to detect in between those lines. Qin Xiu Zhi pretended not to hear, cupped his hands slightly and answered with a smile, "Gentleman Xiao said it so seriously. Since Shang Jun and I are friends, we should take care of each other."