

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Chapter 102.2

Prince Rui

"Gentleman Qin is not from Cang Yue? Are you used to be staying here?"

"Xiu Zhi regards the four corners of the world as my home, as far as I'm concerned, it's the same everywhere."

These two people were so busy talking with each other, did they treat him as a dead person?! Since they like to fight with hidden words like this, he will fulfill them. Shang Jun directly ignored the two of them as he passed by them and walked towards Yu Han who was not too far away. Once Shang Jun left, the two did not greet and talk to each other anymore. After taking a glance at the other person, Qin Xiu Zhi slightly cupped his hands and took the initiative to leave. Xiao Zong Qing stared at Qin Xiu Zhi's back and his eyes slightly flashed.

Seeing Shang Jun approaching them, He Shao Hua said resentfully by Yu Han's side, "Master, do you still want to be with them? I always think they are not simple and very strange." Even if they are not the Iron Armored Army people, but they must also have some schemes.

He Cheng pulled him by the collar, pushed him aside and said, "Master, according to this subordinate, the Iron Armored Army people are way too many and the young lady is still unconscious. At this moment, our powers are not strong either, so let's stay here. At the very least, wait until the young lady wakes up and then we can leave." He Shao Hua muttered disapprovingly, but did not dare to confront his own father.

Yu Han looked at his younger sister who was in his arms and had no signs of consciousness. After taking a look at Shang Jun who was approaching, and after weighing it over before Shang Jun could speak up, he said sincerely, "I'm grateful for Gentleman's help for so many times. Yu Han can't thank you enough. I don't know if we can bother you guys for a few more days or not. If my younger sister's health is better, we will then leave."

The smile on Shang Jun's face remained unchanged, but he was wondering whether they should be allowed to stay. The Iron Armored Army is not easy to provoke and he does not want to confront Long Qu Mu's minions unprepared like this. Moreover, Yu Han's identity is unknown and this person actually caused the Iron Armored Army to dispatch such a big battle formation like this, so maybe he is somewhat useful. What should he do now?! Just when Shang Jun was still thinking it over, Xiao Zong Qing slowly walked up and laughed loudly, "Prince Rui doesn't need to be too polite, the princess's health should be a number one priority."

"You..." Yu Han, or it should be that of Long Yi Hai's heart was shocked and all the faces of the Imperial guards behind him changed drastically. They stepped forward to protect Long Yi Hai as their hands touched their waist where their swords were held. Xiao Zong Qing still laughed naturally, standing side by side with Shang Jun, completely unafraid of the fierce eyes of those guards who were staring at him. Long Yi Hai suddenly laughed, gently raised his hand to signal the imperial guards to retreat and sighed, "Wu Sheng Men organization is indeed amazing."

He had already known his identity earlier; it was estimated that even if he wanted to go now but he could not go. Long Yi Hai held his head up high and frankly replied, "Then we will be disturbing you."

Not bad, he has some manners, so Xiao Zong Qing smiled politely as he said, "Liu Yun, lead the way for Prince Rui."

*****

"If this is the case, we can give it a try." Long Yi Hai is indeed the most advantageous weapon to be used against Long Qu Mu, but Shang Jun hesitated a bit and said, "I'm afraid that Cang Yue will be more chaotic by then."

Although Long Yi Hai has the ability to fight, he may not be able to ascend the throne. Long Qu Mu has not established a crown prince up until now, so there will inevitably be a fight and the Imperial Court will definitely face a catastrophe. Yan Rui has been glaring at (the country) like a tiger watching its prey and Dong Yu and Cang Yue were in a war. If the country has both internal and external troubles, then he is afraid that the common people will not be living peacefully.

Softly tapping Shang Jun on his shoulder, Xiao Zong Qing obviously did not have so many doubts, "We just want to use his name and power to kill Long Qu Mu. In the end, it is not our matter who will become the king anyway!" His purpose is to help Shang Jun resolve his wish now and he does not care about the chaos in the world!

Yes ah, what does it have to do with him who will become the king? He just wants to avenge the Wu Family. Why should he take care of other things?! When the Wu family's home was ransacked, who had taken care of them?! Shang Jun's eyes were cold; he nodded and replied, "Alright."

Sian's notes:

Oh my!!! I love that jealousy going on between San Er & Qin Xiu Zhi. Hahaha... they're sooo cute... didn't think guys would act the same way as gals when they were meeting their love rivals!