Chapter 105.1

Long Liu Li

"Gentleman, let Liu Li help you."

Qin Xiu Zhi put his red and swollen hands between his sleeves and replied cautiously, "I don't dare to bother this young lady." He did not expect that this young lady would come to express her thanks to him alone. A single man and woman staying in the same room would really hurt her reputation.

Long Liu Li stared at the man in front of her with a pair of bright eyes; it was him who brought her out. She recognized those eyes that were as gentle as the breeze of early spring and his voice that was deep and gentle. When she lost consciousness, his appearance kept circling around in her mind, accompanying her through the darkness and fear. The moment she woke up she wanted to see him immediately, so she came to find him.

Seeing Qin Xiu Zhi's uncomfortable appearance in his eyes, Long Liu Li lowered her head slightly and softly replied, "Liu Li just wants to thank the gentleman for saving my life. I have explained the reason to my older brother before coming here, so the gentleman does not need to worry. But if Liu Li made the gentlemen to feel so embarrassed like this, Liu Li will just leave."

Long Liu Li frowned while she was whispering, with a grievance on her face. Qin Xiu Zhi hurriedly got up and humbly said, "Miss is exaggerating, I'm just..." Just what? While he does not want to hurt her good intentions, but Qin Xiu Zhi is indeed embarrassed.

Qin Xiu Zhi's embarrassment made Long Liu Li slightly smile; he was indeed a humble and modest gentlemen like she had imagined. Picking up the white jade ointment on the table, she smiled gently and said, "The Gentleman's frostbite should be treated as soon as possible so as to not have any problems in the future."

Qin Xiu Zhi was in a dilemma. She kindly wanted to help him apply the medicine, so his refusal would seem to hurt her good intentions, but he did not think it was right to let her apply the medicine. How could this be good?! Qin Xiu Zhi said nothing, so Long Liu Li directly got up, pulled Qin Xiu Zhi's sleeves and put his hands down at the table. She then picked up the ointment with her hand and gently started applying it to Qin Xiu Zhi's fingertips.

Did Xiu Zhi's hands have frostbite?! If they did, it would've happened when they went out today. He did not notice it at all. Shang Jun anxiously looked inside, but he could only vaguely see the beautiful woman's back as she carefully put on the ointment for Xiu Zhi. Shang Jun wanted to knock on the door with his hand, but he put it down again. What would he do by going inside anyway? With such a gentle and meticulous beauty taking care of him (QXZ), why would he need to meddle in this situation?!

Putting down his hand in a daze, Shang Jun turned his head and no longer looked at the gentleness coming out of the room as he walked away.

Long Liu Li's hand had just touched Qin Xiu Zhi's fingertips when Qin Xiu Zhi immediately retracted his hand and erratically took out the ointment to apply it on his hand. This rude movement caused his forehead to sweat in thin beads. Fortunately, he wiped it quickly, and Qin Xiu Zhi quickly smiled and said, "It's done. Thank you, young lady."

Long Liu Li dumbly looked at the ointment in her hand; was she so terrifying?!

Shang Jun was just about to step out of the small courtyard where Xiu Zhi was staying, when he immediately heard a slightly sharp female voice, "Ai yo, Misterns, if you guys come in like this, how do we still do our business ah?!"

Shang Jun stepped back into the small courtyard and looked over the courtyard wall. More than fifty Iron Armored soldiers were standing in the middle of the courtyard with their keen eyes scanning every corner. The leader ignored the female brother keeper's yelling and coldly said, "Search!"

With that order, the Iron Armored soldiers immediately divided into three groups and rushed over to each side of the courtyard. As one of them rushed towards him, he thought of Long Liu Li who was in Xiu Zhi's room, so Shang Jun turned around and hurried into Qin Xiu Zhi's room.

Qin Xiu Zhi and Long Liu Li were shocked as the door was suddenly pushed open. Seeing that it was Shang Jun, Qin Xiu Zhi asked, "Shang Jun, what happened?"

As Shang Jun closed the door he explained, "The men of the Iron Armored Army are searching and they will find her soon." He had only just finished speaking when the noise from their footsteps was already approaching their courtyard.

Iron Armored Army! Long Liu Li's face was pale and she whispered, "They must have come to catch my older brother!"

"Don't worry about this Princess, there will be someone who is watching Prince Rui, but you..." People in the Iron Armored Army must have seen the portrait of Long Liu Li and they could not let them find her. Shang Jun worriedly looked around the room and was disappointed that there was no place to hide.

She is the Princess?! That man is Prince Rui?! Shang Jun obviously had known this earlier, so did he already plan to save them since a long time ago?! Qin Xiu Zhi felt very sad, as he really did not know anything about Shang Jun's affairs.

Shang Jun looked at Qin Xiu Zhi who was in a daze and anxiously said, "Can Xiu Zhi help disguise her look?"

After returning to his senses, Qin Xiu Zhi shook his head when he heard the footsteps outside getting closer and said, "It's too late."
