Chapter 106.1

Married Couple? (Part 1)

Shang Jun nodded and finally restrained his smile after great difficulty, but he still felt a pair of bright eyes staring straight at him from inside the muslin curtain. Even though she was behind a curtain, he would not be mistaken about this, and since it was his scheme a moment ago, Shang Jun lightly coughed, slightly cupped his hands and said, "This matter happened so suddenly, I will still have to apologize to Princess for being magnanimous enough to forgive for the offense."

Across the muslin curtain, Long Liu Li replied softly and generously, "Gentleman Shang has a lot of schemes and has rescued us many times, so it should be Liu Li giving thanks to you instead."

Shang Jun raised the corner of his lips and sighed inwardly. She was indeed a lady from a noble house, with a soft and gentle voice, and knew how to advance and retreat in dealing with affairs. It made some people to feel embarrassed. "Princess's words are too serious. After the Iron Armored Army has searched this place, they should not come back. Princess should take a rest for a little bit. After they leave, we will send you to see Prince Rui."

"I will be troubling you." Long Liu Li quietly stared at this handsome and incomparable man in front of her. He is standing side by side with Qin Xiu Zhi, so... how does one say this? She does not know what this feeling is, but she feels a little tight in her chest.

Shang Jun returned a courtesy again and stopped talking. He did not seem to feel comfortable associating with this type of peerless beauty. Shang Jun turned his head just in time to see Qin Xiu Zhi's red and swollen hands, so he frowned and whispered, "Come here."

Qin Xiu Zhi's did not understand why Shang Jun was suddenly in a bad mood as he followed him to the outside room. Shang Jun was looking for something in the messy room, so Qin Xiu Zhi asked, "What are you looking for?"

Shang Jun did not reply him as he quickly found the white jade ointment that fell on the ground and picked up the ointment with his hand before Shang Jun naturally said, "Give me your hand."

Qin Xiu Zhi recovered his mind and looked at both his hands that had been rubbed by the ointment a while ago. He hesitated for a moment, but still stretched out his hands.

The red and swollen fingers in front of him caused Shang Jun's hand that was about to apply the medicine to become stiff. Are these the same hands that were originally slender and spotless? He remembered that he plays a music instrument very well. Can he play such a melodious and euphemistic tune now?! Why did he not find out about this earlier today?!

Shang Jun carefully applied the ointment to Qin Xiu Zhi's fingertips. He (QXZ) shuddered slightly, so Shang Jun did not dare to apply it again. He froze right there and asked in annoyance, "Does it hurt?"

Seeing him being so cautious and solemn, Qin Xiu Zhi chuckled and shook his head, "It doesn't hurt." How would he tell him that his hands were shaking because he (SJ) was the one who was helping him apply the medicine!

After applying the medicine very carefully, Shang Jun took a long breath and said, "Be careful not to come into contact with the cold anymore."

"En."

The room suddenly became quiet again; Qin Xiu Zhi was silent and Shang Jun did not know what to say. Long Liu Li had been watching them quietly behind the muslin curtain without saying anything, so all of it together seemed a bit weird and awkward. Shang Jun simply got up and walked to the door before he hurriedly said, "Take care of the princess, I'll go out and check." Qin Xiu Zhi wanted to say something, but it was too late as Shang Jun had already walked outside of the room.

After stepping out of the small courtyard, Shang Jun slowed down his footsteps. He seemed to be less and less able to interact with Xiu Zhi now. How can this be good?!

While his mind was in a daze, he heard the sound of fighting coming from outside of Fei Hong Huan Cui place. Shang Jun hurried over and saw under the dark night, on the not-so-wide street, the Iron Armored Army fighting with Long Yi Hai and his party. As the swords from both parties intersected, the sparks were particularly obvious during this night.

Shang Jun was secretly anxious. How could San Er give Long Yi Hai up to the Iron Armored Army so soon?! When he saw a long sword cross over towards Long Yi Hai's neck, even though he was not fully recovered yet, Shang Jun stroked the soft sword on his waist. Just when he was about to take action, a depressed male voice sounded behind him, "How many times do you want me to say it before you listen to me?!"

Shang Jun turned his head and met Xiao Zong Qing's angry and helpless eyes.

With his big hand grabbing Shang Jun's hand that was stroking the sword, Xiao Zong Qing said in a deep voice, "I said I won't let them die, can you just obediently heal your injury?!" When will he get used to be relying on him?! When will he be obedient?! A sense of powerlessness caused Xiao Zong Qing to feel irritated.

Obviously, Shang Jun never knew what it meant to be obedient, and did not intend to leave at all. Shang Jun leaned against the wall and carefully observed the people in the battle. Upon closer inspection, the Iron Armored Army were very fierce, and although Long Yi Hai and his subordinates had to retreat the whole way, there was no panic on their faces, so could it be...

Looking over at Xiao Zong Qing, Shang Jun guessed, "You want to do it once and for all?"

His Shang Jun is so smart! Knowing that he did not explain it clearly, Shang Jun would not follow him back, so Xiao Zong Qing explained, "I will not let them kill the 'dead' Prince Rui; we will not be able to get rid of the entanglement with the Iron Armored Army all throughout the journey anyway. Since this is the case, it will be better to plan on helping them."
