

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Chapter 106.2

Married Couple? (Part 1)

Xiao Zong Qing had only just stopped talking, when Long Yi Hai had already mounted a fast horse under the cover of He Cheng and ran out of the city. How could the Iron Armored Army let him go, so they immediately chased after him. The calvary began entangling further and further away.

The snow was still falling, so Xiao Zong Qing embraced Shang Jun's shoulders and softly said, "Alright now, the wind is very strong outside, so go back and rest. We will leave here tomorrow morning and go back to Tian Cheng city." Everything will be what he wants (at that time).

"San Er, do you have anything that you are hiding from me?" Looking in the direction that the calvary had departed to, Shang Jun was not in a hurry to go back, while this simple question caused Xiao Zong Qing to shudder for no reason.

A trace of panic flashed in his eyes, but it quickly dissipated. Xiao Zong Qing held Shang Jun's shoulders, turned him around to face him and replied in a deep voice, "You never have to worry about this, everything I do now is to fulfill your wish, so how can I hide it from you?"

Shang Jun's clear eyes met Xiao Zong Qing's deep eyes. After a long time, Shang Jun retracted his gaze and lightly said, "Play chess with me, I can't sleep."

"Alright."

Shang Jun strolled ahead with his back in front of (XZQ) and his arrogant figure made someone look a little scared! Xiao Zong Qing's fists gradually clenched; as long as he could protect him and do things that he did not want him (SJ) to do, he would not regret it even if he was rejected in the end by him.

A white piece lightly descended and the victory was concluded.

Twelve games of chess were played the whole night long and Shang Jun was victorious.

It was not that his chess skills were much higher than San Er's, but San Er had been absent-minded the whole time.

Shang Jun put the chess pieces into the chess box and gently closed the lid, when the sound of Liu Yun's voice from outside the door timely sounded out, "Master."

Xiao Zong Qing replied wearily, "Come in."

Liu Yun stepped into the room and only stood by the door while he replied, "According to your instructions, we have rescued Prince Rui from the cliff. The Iron Armored Army is searching the bottom of the cliff." Liu Yun was bloody and muddy. Needless to say, everyone knew that the night was extremely thrilling.

"Where is Prince Rui now?"

"In the courtyard."

Xiao Zong Qing looked at Shang Jun and smiled, "Let's go, the next step is to convince him to join hands with us. Whether or not we are able to help him ascend the throne in the future, we must now let him believe that we are helping him, so he can be obedient and accept our arrangement for him." He actually likes obedient chess pieces.

Shang Jun nodded gently without saying much and walked behind Xiao Zong Qing.

When the two came to the courtyard, they saw Long Yi Hai and his subordinates looking like they were in a difficult situation, because they looked even worse than Liu Yun, but their expressions were very happy.

"Prince Rui is startled." Xiao Zong Qing greeted.

Long Yi Hai did not care about his filthy body and laughed loudly, "Master is too polite, thank you for the clever plan to get rid of the Iron Armored Army."

"This is only temporarily able to get rid of the Iron Armored Army. One more day that Long Qu Mu doesn't die, I am afraid that Prince Rui will not live in peace for another day."

"You..." Long Yi Hai's face changed slightly; calling the emperor's name so impolitely would be a capital crime. Is this Xiao Zong Qing testing him?

Because of his reckless words, the courtyard was silent. "What's wrong? Did I say it too directly?!" Xiao Zong Qing laughed almost wildly, staring at Long Yi Hai's slightly cold face as he said, "I have always liked people who are straightforward. If Prince Rui wants to regain everything that you had before, I can help you get your powers back. But if Prince Rui just wants to hide and live like a mouse, then you can leave as soon as possible."

"Outrageous!" He Shao Hua jumped up, but unfortunately the weapon in his hand did not even have time to be drawn out before Liu Yun's long sword was already pointed at his eyebrows. The originally pleasant atmosphere immediately took a sharp turn.

Long Yi Hai approached Xiao Zong Qing; even in this small courtyard he was not his opponent, but Long Yi Hai did not have any fear on his face at all before he calmly asked, "What is your purpose?"

Xiao Zong Qing seemed very satisfied with Long Yi Hai's performance and briskly replied, "It's no longer a matter of a day or two for the Wu Sheng Men organization to be regarded as a thorn in the eye of Long Qu Mu. The past few years have been particularly intense; you are a smart person and you should know what I want!"

Xiao Zong Qing's request was not too excessive. Since he was young, he already knew how to take and give benefits, so Long Yi Hai naturally knew that everything must be paid. Turning to look towards Shang Jun who had been standing silently at the end of the courtyard, Long Yi Hai asked, "Is Gentleman Shang also from Wu Sheng Men organization?"