

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Chapter 106.3

Married Couple? (Part 1)

He just wanted to watch, but did not expect that Long Yi Hai was actually thinking of him at this moment, so Shang Jun smiled and replied, "I am not."

"Then are you just a bystander?"

Shang Jun shook his head and frankly said, "No, if I help you, it's because of another matter."

"What do you want?" He had always felt that this Shang Jun was not a person who likes chasing fame and fortune, so he is somewhat looking forward to hearing what conditions he will propose.

The morning light in the winter was actually a bit dazzling, so he squinted his eyes slightly as Shang Jun stared at the morning glow piercing through the clouds in the distance before coldly replying, "I want... justice."

Justice? What kind of condition was this?! Even though he had guessed countless different conditions that Shang Jun might propose, he did not think of that particular one! At this moment, his cold and proud appearance was colder than the snow in the courtyard, and Long Yi Hai was puzzled so he asked, "What kind of justice?"

Raising a slightly mocking smile, Shang Jun smiled and said, "Let's talk about it when you actually ascend the throne." If Long Yi Hai is not the person he is looking for, then he is not qualified to give him the justice for the Wu family.

What did he mean by this?! Long Yi Hai stared at Shang Jun's beautiful profile and became even more curious about him.

Xiao Zong Qing turned sideways, blocking Long Yi Hai's sight and with a cynical look before he said with a smile, "Prince Rui can slowly think about this, as I am very patient."

Long Yi Hai did not think about it for a long time before he replied, "Alright, if you help me ascend the throne, then the Wu Sheng Men organization will be an intelligence group bestowed by the Royal Imperial Court and will not be supervised by the Six Departments."

Xiao Zong Qing stretched out his right palm, "Is it settled then?"

"That's settled then!" Long Yi Hai clapped his (XZQ) hand without hesitation.

Pa (the sound of clasping hands)! A crisp sound echoed; was that considered a pledge?!

Shang Jun sneered, Long Yi Hai was either too stupid or too smart. Wu Sheng Men organization has always been a mysterious organization in Jiang Hu. How can it be so rare that it is famous? When has it been supervised by the six departments?! He only wants to take the opportunity to use Wu Sheng Men organization for himself. In this world, no one is a fool, only one who knows how to calculate better.

"Older brother!" Within the side yard, a beautiful figure hurried over and upon seeing Long Yi Hai covered in dirt, she anxiously said, "How have you been, are you injured?!"

Raising a smile, Long Yi Hai replied, "I'm fine. How about you?"

Long Liu Li looked at Qin Xiu Zhi, who was walking slowly behind her and replied slightly shy, "Thanks to Gentleman Qin who helped me, I'm fine."

Shang Jun raised his eyebrows lightly; it seems that it would be fine even without him.

Feeling as if he could not bear to hear the young lady's talk and shy appearance, Xiao Zong Qing impatiently said, "Prince Rui needs to tidy up, as we are going back to Tian Cheng City."

Long Liu Li raised her head and asked in surprise, "Return to Tian Cheng City?! Is that alright?!" She thought they would never chance a return to Tian Cheng City ever again.

"Of course we have to go back to Tian Cheng City. The most dangerous place is also the safest place. In Tian Cheng City, there are still many things that we have to do." Looking at Long Yi Hai and Long Liu Li, Xiao Zong Qing said, "But we still have to be careful along the way. The corpses found by the Iron Armored Army have been completely unrecognizable. But because of their suspicious character, they will certainly be spying around. Therefore, it is better for the princess and the prince to disguise themselves."

Disguise?! When Xiao Zong Qing finished speaking, Long Yi Hai immediately looked at Qin Xiu Zhi. He did not forget that Qin Xiu Zhi could see through his disguise with just a glance; this revealed that his disguise skills must be exquisite.

Qin Xiu Zhi laughed, "I can help you disguise yourself, but you have to tell me what kind of person you want me to disguise you as."

Long Yi Hai thought it over for a while before he replied, "Liu Li can also pretend to be a man, so it should not be easily noticeable." This group of big men with a woman would be easily recognized.

Shang Jun shook his head and said with a smile, "The princess has a gentle demeanor and delicate movements, so it will only be more eye-catching when she pretends to be a man." He thought it was so easy for a woman to pretend to be a man?! They would not understand the hard work and the thick cloth on the chest that was enough to suffocate the princess.

"I have an idea." Xiao Zong Qing's eyes flashed as he walked between Long Liu Li and Qin Xi Zhi and smilingly said, "It's better to make the princess a beautiful woman and pretend to be a husband and wife with Gentleman Qin. In order to attend their official father's birthday celebration, the two returned to the capital to celebrate his birthday and the others can pretend to be their guards, so the group will have a reputation when they go back to the capital.

Pretending to be a couple?!

Before everyone reacted, Xiao Zong Qing looked at Shang Jun again and asked with carelessness, "Jun, What do you think about this plan?"

Sian's notes:

XZQ can be so conniving!! LOL... But I like this type of XZQ though... I have a hunch that maybe this Princess is going to be XZQ's match somehow in the future????