

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Ch 112.1

Unexpected Guest (Part 2)

Shang Jun was secretly startled and leaped back to avoid the ribbon's attack, but when he reached out to grab it, he found the fiery red ribbon was extremely thin and light but also flexible and ice-cold, so he could hardly grab it. It seemed to have some spiritual nature, as it was slipping away between his fingers. Shang Jun frowned as he stroked the heaven soft sword on his waist. To be able to control such a thin and weird ribbon so delicately, this person's martial arts skills must be weird.

Flicking the ribbon sideways, Shang Jun swung his heaven soft sword intending to cut the ribbon. Who would have known that as the ribbon intersected with the heaven soft sword, it produced a faint spark? The ribbon could not bear Shang Jun's strength, so it fell down, but it did not have any slight damage at all!

Shang Jun was stunned. What kind of weapon was this that even his heaven soft sword could not even cut it?!

The ribbon glided and Shang Jun looked anxiously at the end of it, wanting to see what kind of person was holding this weapon.

The light in the room was dim and Shang Jun strenuously squinted his eyes and finally saw the person not far away. It was... a very young and charming face, full of youthful personality. In the darkness, the woman's alert eyes were gleaming and dazzling; they were proud and recklessly written all over her high spirited and charming face. A blazing red outfit, coupled with her slightly dark wheat-colored skin, she looked healthy and unruly!

The woman also stared at Shang Jun in a daze, with a pair of eyes lingering on his face, making no secret of her surprise!

The two looked at each other like this for a while, and Shang Jun suddenly remembered that Xiu Zhi's situation was still unclear. He did not know whether the person in front of him was an enemy or a friend, so he raised the heaven soft sword again and pointed it to the woman's right hand that was holding the ribbon.

Shang Jun was so fast that it shocked the woman while she waved the ribbon again. Unfortunately, Shang Jun was already close to her right hand, so upon seeing that her right arm was about to be wrapped by the soft sword, he only heard the murmur of another sword energy from afar before it came toward him. He felt a strong force coming before the heaven soft sword in his hand bounced away.

Was there anyone else in this room? He did not feel it at all just now. Has his martial arts really regressed to this level?

The heaven soft sword made a long buzzing sound due to the impact just now as his hand felt a dull pain. Shang Jun looked up and saw a bloody red sword shining in front of him with a blood-thirsty cold ray.

This is.....

In the dark night, the tall black-clothed man held a long sword in one hand and Xiu Zhi's throat in the other; his cold stare could suffocate people.

He recognized those eyes!

"It's you again!!" Shang Jun whispered.

The man who chased Xiu Zhi a year ago! How could it be him?! Shang Jun's heart suddenly went up to his throat. Even when his strength was at its peak, he was not necessarily his opponent, let alone with the strength he had now!

At a moment of desperation, Shang Jun remembered the woman in red who was still standing next to him. Although the woman's red silk was a sharp weapon, it was a pity that her skill was relatively weak, so that the man in black had to use his sword to rescue her. So these two must be on the same team. Thinking of how to fix this, Shang Jun decided... to take a gamble!

Shang Jun abruptly turned around, took a quick step back and with all his strength, he forcefully grabbed the woman in red. Mo Can had already grabbed Xiu Zhi in his hands, so he was unable to respond when Wei Na had fallen into Shang Jun's hands.

Holding Wei Na's throat, Shang Jun and Mo Can coldly faced each other.

Mo Can's indifferent eyes flashed deeply cold at this time. Even in the dark, his cold and murderous aura still shocked people's hearts as the low male voice attacked like frost, "Let her go."

Shang Jun's chest was aching, what a strong internal force!! Seeing Mo Can's fingertips almost embedded in Xiu Zhi's neck, although his face was invisible in the dark room, the painful groan that escaped from his throat revealed that Xiu Zhi was in danger at this time.

He was not this man's opponent at all, but Shang Jun gritted his teeth and replied coldly, "You let go of him first!" Shang Jun also used his strength and the woman grunted with pain, as Shang Jun felt the pulse between the woman's neck as it beat violently. The woman's life was held in his palm. Hearing that man's breathing in the dark gradually become a little disordered, Shang Jun knew that he had the right bargaining chip. At this time, the woman's face was flushed, but Shang Jun did not let her go, however he did loosen up his grip on her a little.

Upon feeling that Shang Jun had loosened up a little bit of the strength in his hand, Wei Na's hand that went to grab the medicine powder stopped. There are hundreds of medicines in her body that can make life worse than death. Whoever captures her is asking for hardship! But this man in white is a little bit interesting, so she is somewhat reluctant to let him die, plus she can also take this opportunity to see how much Mo Can cares about her! Retracting the powder between her sleeves, Wei Na cooperated and let Shang Jun hold her back. Even though her neck was not painful anymore, she continued to show extreme pain.

Shang Jun was a little perplexed; he had obviously loosened up his strength, so why did the woman still look like her life was worse than death?! He was puzzled, but his current energy could only be placed on Mo Can, and he had no time to take care of other things.

The two of them were holding hostages with cold eyes and hostility as neither of them were willing to compromise. Shang Jun did not dare to compromise, because his martial arts had already fallen much more than before!

The fighting in the room shocked Xi Mu and Ye Yan who were in the next room. The two people rushed to the door and saw Qin Xiu Zhi being held hostage by a black-clothed man, so they drew their swords and attacked him.

Shang Jun was holding Wei Na and confronting him, so Mo Can was already in a bad mood. Now there were two more people who were not afraid of death, so he was even more impatient when he said, "If you want him to die, you can get closer."

Shang Jun was the closest to him. As soon as the black-clothed man's voice fell, Xiu Zhi suddenly let out an extremely painful muffled grunt. Shang Jun's face paled in fright, and he shouted at the two people who rushed to meet him, "Don't come over."

Sian's notes:

My guess was wrong!!! The uninvited guest isn't Xi Lie Yue but Wei Na!! How can I forget that Wei Na always wears red clothing!! I'm very disappointed with me. Lol... but on another note, my Mo Can is BACK!!! 😊😊😊