

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Ch 112.2

Unexpected Guest (Part 2)

Xi Mu and Ye Yan's feet were stuck to the ground as they heard Qin Xiu Zhi's painful voice. Even though they were anxious and angry, they had to stop and could only fiercely stare at the black-clothed man. If their eyes could kill, Mo Can guessed that he would already full of holes, but it was a pity that he did not pay any attention to their stares at all.

The strength of his finger was so strong that Xiu Zhi seemed to be near death. Thinking of Xiu Zhi's flushed face in the dark and his difficulty breathing, Shang Jun's heart was a little flustered. After secretly adjusting his breath, Shang Jun asked calmly, "Who the heck are you?"

This man is called Shang Jun, right?! He is deeply impressed by him. A year ago, he had been fooled by him, but today by just listening to his breathing, he knew that his internal strength was not as good as last time, yet he can still be such a tough enemy against him. In the dark, the corners of Mo Can's continuously indifferent mouth lightly raised, before his voice that was still cold and arrogant said, "Mo Can."

Mo Can!

The number one killer in the Jiang Hu, Mo Can!

Shang Jun's heart was cold; no wonder his martial arts were unpredictable! No wonder his sword was thirsty for blood and scarlet in color! No wonder he dared to say that he only killed people once!

He killed people without even blinking his eyes. Shang Jun, who was already nervous, became even more anxious at this time. Looking at those cold eyes, Shang Jun angrily said, "Mo Can, you can't be trusted!" He (MC) promised him that if he lost, he would not kill Xiu Zhi again! He turned back on his words!

Mo Can's cold face seemed to frost over and he replied extremely impatiently, "I am not here to kill him this time. If I want him to die, no one can stop me. It would be better if you immediately let go of that woman or I will change my mind." He had planned to leave after clearly asking about one thing, and if he had not broken in and made trouble, he would have already left.

He did not want Xiu Zhi's life this time, so then what is he doing here?! No matter what his purpose was, Shang Jun admitted that if he wanted Xiu Zhi to die, he really could not stop him. He looked at the woman in red who was held in his arms, before realizing there is no point to continue in this stalemate, so Shang Jun loudly said, "Okay, we will release them at the same time."

Mo Can remained silent, but Shang Jun continued on to say loudly, "One, two, three!"

Once he finished speaking, Shang Jun released his hand that held the woman in red's throat, but he grabbed her belt with the other hand behind the woman, while his eyes were fixed on Mo Can.

After a while, Shang Jun heard Xiu Zhi's loud gasping, and he finally let go of his heart as Mo Can let him go.

Qin Xiu Zhi staggered out of the room and Shang Jun immediately let go of the red-clothed woman's hand while he greeted him (QXZ).

Wei Na pouted her lips in disappointment, so boring. Mo Can did not worry about her! He did not ask her if she was injured!!

"Xiu Zhi, how are you doing?" Shang Jun's voice trembled a little while holding onto Xiu Zhi's hand; his hands were frighteningly cold! Xiu Zhi only felt pain in his throat and chest as if it had been scorched by fire! He remained speechless for a while, so he could only smile at Shang Jun and shake his head. He was hoping that he could make him (SJ) feel at ease.

At this time, Qin Xiu Zhi's face was flushed; the red outline of the five-fingerprints on his neck were particularly dazzling, but he still gently smiled as usual trying to calm his unsettled heart. However, Xiu Zhi did not know that at this moment, his smile would only make his (SJ) heart hurt even more.

After pouring a glass of water and giving it Xiu Zhi, Mo Can's cold voice ring out again, "I only want to talk to him."

Shang Jun almost gritted his teeth and when he replied, "Impossible." Xiu Zhi's face had not recovered back to normal and the bruises were still visible. Unless he is crazy, it is absolutely impossible to let Xiu Zhi be alone together with this dangerous person!

Shang Jun resolutely answered and Mo Can was unwilling to compromise. The two people glared at each other again, and the atmosphere that had slightly eased up a little bit, became tense once again. The woman in red who had been standing to the side rolled her eyes. Are these two people planning to stare like this all night?! Or should they fight first?! Pointing at Xi Mu and Ye Yan, the woman said, "Okay then, you can stay but they can't."

His martial arts were not enough to protect Xiu Zhi, so Shang Jun was deep in thought. Xiu Zhi drank the water and his anger finally subsided. He could not bear Shang Jun's distress at all, so he said in a hoarse voice, "Xi Mu, Ye Yan, stay at the door and don't let anyone approach."

"Yes." Xi Mu and Ye Yan glanced at each other; under this current situation, they could only withdraw first, then discuss it after.

There were only four people left in the room, so Wei Na took out a match from her waist and lit the candles. The room suddenly became brighter as she smiled and said to Mo Can, "Okay, there are no outsiders now. If you want to say anything, say it quickly, otherwise it'll be dawn soon!"

Mo Can glared at Wei Na's smiling face without saying a word. Wei Na felt strange; she was only helping him, so why was he staring at her now?! Pouting, Wei Na glared back with her eyes wide open, and replied thinly, "What are you staring at me for? They are a couple. Even if you want to drive him away, he won't leave ah!"

Shang Jun was only watching them idly argue, when suddenly that woman said such a sentence! It caused Shang Jun to panic in fear that his identity would be revealed, so he immediately and angrily said, "Absurd!"

His fierce reaction was met with three people's pair of eyes as Qin Xiu Zhi's heart sank to the bottom. Shang Jun really despised such feelings. After swallowing the bitterness in his heart, Qin Xiu Zhi also cooperatively explained, "This Miss, you misunderstood, we are just... good friends."

"Good friends?" Wei Na snorted and complained, "Why didn't you have a mirror just now to let you see each other's expressions?" If you like him, then just say you like him; she does not know what they are so awkward about!

Both Shang Jun and Qin Xiu Zhi were embarrassed and could not raise their heads to look at each other. Shang Jun gave a light cough and deliberately said in a deep voice, "Don't talk nonsense anymore! We are both men, how can we be a couple?!"