

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Ch 116.1

Shu Qing's Death (Part 2)

"What?!"

"How could it be.....?!"

Mu Rong Shuqing is dead!!

When Shang Jun said this, everyone present was stunned. Long Yi Hai frowned slightly. Xiao Zong Qing looked at Shang Jun anxiously. For a while, Qin Xiu Zhi could not think of how to comfort him. Shu Qing, that beautiful woman, did she actually die?

"Jun!"

Shang Jun suddenly stood up, ignoring the worried gazes of everyone behind him and opened the curtain. He got into the carriage, and (that move) cut off everyone's sight.

Shu Qing are you finally free? From the moment they met, he knew that Shu Qing had a restrained heart and was longing for freedom. She always wanted to be free of the family restriction! Now she can finally let go of everything and be free herself!

Shang Jun lowered his head and looked at the letter he was holding in his hand which was left to him by Shu Qing. In just a few words, he knew that she had staged a crafty death scene in order to escape and she was free! He did not deny that in order to make outsiders believe that Shu Qing was really dead, he had acted it out a while ago, but when he first saw the letter he really panicked!

Shu Qing is free, he should be happy, right?! Shang Jun laughed at himself and admitted that he became panicked and scared! For many years, Shu Qing is not only a good friend, but her warm smile and comforting personality are the foundation of his heart that gives him peace of mind and warmth. Now she had left him and he did not know if there would still be any chance to see her again in this life. From now on, he really is the only one left in this world!

He has known her as a close friend in this world! Jun, cherish yourself and don't forget to feel at ease!

With his eyes fixed on the free and easy faint handwriting on the last line of the letter, Shang Jun raised his head slightly before he closed his eyes to hide the moisture gathering in them, even though his lips contained a faint smile.

For a long time, there was a still silence outside the carriage, before Qin Xiu Zhi's peculiar whisper came from the window, "Shang Jun, do you... do you want to go to Dong Yu first?" Others may not know his relationship with Shu Qing.

From Qin Xiu Zhi's view, he knew that Shang Jun had a deep affection for Shu Qing and Shu Qing's death would have dealt a great blow to him!

Unexpectedly, Shang Jun's calm voice came from inside the carriage, "No, how long will it take to reach Tian Cheng city?"

Everyone outside the carriage glanced at each other and in the end, Long Yi Hai replied, "If we are hurry up, we should be there in two days."

Xiao Zong Qing always felt that there was something wrong with Shang Jun, so he simply and directly said, "Jun, if you really want to go to Dong Yu to see her on one last occasion, I can accompany you. As for Prince Rui... Zi Han and the others, I will also arrange it.

"You don't need to worry."

In the carriage, there was still a calm response, "Hurry up, get to Tian Cheng city as soon as possible!"

Outside the carriage, no one knew what Shang Jun was thinking at this time as the carriage slowly drove towards the direction of Tian Cheng city.

Cang Yue Military Camp

"Murong Shu Qing is dead?!" You Xiao glanced at the book of war in his hand, staring at the spy who just came back to give the report and asked, "How did she die?"

According to the facts, the spies reported, "It was rumored that she was poisoned to death by the Queen during etiquette training in the palace."

"Is there really such a thing?!" You Xiao closed the book with doubts in his heart. Murong's family in Dong Yu could be said to be an experienced family. Murong Shu Qing, as the future wife of the highest general, was the jewel of the Murong family and Prime Minister Qi's most beloved granddaughter. With such a background, why did Dong Yu's Queen want to poison her to death?! "Is this message conclusive?"

Stared at by a pair of cold and arrogant eyes, the spy did not dare to hesitate and immediately replied, "Yes, the insider in Dong Yu palace confirmed that Murong Shu Qing's body was indeed taken back by the Qi family and both the Qi mansion and the Murong family have already hung up white curtains."

Really dead? With that said, Dong Yu Imperial Family must be in chaos for a while. You Xiao suddenly felt very good and smiled, "Has Xuanyuan Yi returned to the capital city?!"

"No, but he hasn't been out of the tent all day or night!"

"Hasn't been out?!" His fiancé was poisoned to death, so would he not go back for her funeral?! If Xuanyuan Yi does not leave, Cang Yue's acceptance of surrender will definitely continue. You Xiao frowned again and asked, "Did Cang Yue find any suspicious clues about Long Yi Hai?"

"At present, the Iron Armored Army has no clear clues that Prince Rui is not dead."

Throwing the book on the table, You Xiao paced back and forth in the big tent and his rather hurried footsteps showed his manic mood. After pacing for almost an incense stick (15 min), You Xiao suddenly said, "Gather all of the high ranking generals; now is a great time to fight back!"

Hearing You Xiao's words, the spy raised his head in horror and anxiously said, "But the Master said..."
Not to act rashly...

Before he finished speaking, the spy's voice became smaller and smaller under the scrutiny of You Xiao's gloomy eyes.