

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Ch 137.2

Asking for Help (Part 1)

Firmly grasping Lang Yue's sleeves, Shang Xiao exclaimed with tears on her face that was full of hope, "There is one more person; there is another person who can definitely think of a way to save my brother!"

"Really?" Looking at Shang Xiao's confidence, perhaps she could really find someone to save the Gentleman, so Lang Yue asked excitedly, "Who is it?"

Looking around everywhere, even though there was no one around, Shang Xiao leaned forward and pressed against Lang Yue's ear to whisper, "Older sister Shu Qing!"

Lang Yue opened her eyes wide and caressed Shang Xiao's forehead in a panic, while she said worriedly, "Miss, don't scare me! Miss Shu Qing has already..." died, but Lang Yue did not dare to say the next word. She did admit that if Miss Shu Qing was still alive, then maybe there would still be some hope, but now...

"You come with me." With hope in her heart, Shang Xiao swept away the miserable look that she had and pulled Lang Yue up, before running back towards the courtyard where they lived.

Entering the house in a hurry, Shang Xiao opened the door and pulled Lang Yue into the inner room. Shang Xiao then seriously said, "Older sister Lang Yue, what I'm going to say to you can't repeat to anyone else. Actually older sister Shu Qing is not dead, she just went to an overseas country called Hai Yu, which is the country where our merchant ships often visit."

Shang Xiao's expression was real and her words were clear, so Lang Yue finally believed she was not talking nonsense. Holding Shang Xiao's hand, Lang Yue smiled happily and said, "That's great." But then when she thought about it, why didn't the young lady say so before? Could there be hidden secrets?! So then Lang Yue asked softly, "Then why didn't you talk to Gentleman Pei and Yu Feng just now?"

Shang Xiao lowered her head and replied, "Only my brother and I know about this. My brother gave me special instructions last time. It was older sister Shu Qing's choice. She finally lives the life she had always wanted, therefore, it must not be known that she is still alive, let alone disturb her. I will not say it if I was not forced to do so today."

Needless to say about her brother, she also knew that older sister Shu Qing chose to be "dead" to get rid of the Emperor. There was a lot at stake, so this was her last resort; she really had no other choice!!

The Gentleman was always like this; he would always and only think for the sake of others. With a light sigh, Lang Yue asked, "Then what do you want to do next?"

Biting her soft lip, Shang Xiao thought for a while and firmly replied, "I don't want to disturb them, so I plan to go to older sister Shu Qing by myself and ask her to save my brother. I can't let others know that she is still alive before she agrees to do it."

"If you suddenly disappear, Gentleman Pei and Yu Feng will definitely go crazy. Moreover, the fastest a trip to the sea from here would still take about half a month. During that time, we don't know if there would be any change in the Gentleman's situation. You should stay in Tian Cheng City and let me go. No matter how dangerous it is, as long as Lang Yue is still alive, I will definitely find Miss Shu Qing."

Shang Xiao shook her head again and again and anxiously said, "Older sister Lang Yue, it is not a good time to enter or leave Hai Yu at this time, because the sea is very turbulent and dangerous..."

Before Shang Xiao had finished speaking, Lang Yue smiled faintly and said, "Without the Gentleman, there would be no Lang Yue, so let alone stormy waves or even the mountains or the fiery sea, Lang Yue can also make it!" Her life originally belonged to the Gentleman's, so today if she had the opportunity to repay it, even if she died, there would be no regrets!

Lang Yue was right, it took a lot of time and money to go back and forth to Hai Yu. If older sister Shu Qing had not come and her brother had a different situation, then she could still find ways for a change of plans. After all, she was also the owner of Piao Miao manor. Using her sleeves to wipe the tears from the corners of her eyes, Shang Xiao took a deep breath and did not let the tears in her eyes fall again. She had already cried enough, so she nodded vigorously before Shang Xiao said, "Thank you, older sister Lang Yue!"

Lang Yue smiled and shook her head and replied, "I'll go pack my bags now." If she set off one day earlier, she could see Miss Shu Qing one day earlier.

Lang Yue walked to the door, but Shang Xiao suddenly shouted, "Wait a minute."

Running to the table, Shang Xiao spread out the pen and ground the ink, before briefly writing the reason for the matter on the paper. Older sister Shu Qing was cautious in doing things, but since she could not go in person, she had to give Lang Yue some proof.

"You take this letter." Folding the letterhead, she handed it to Lang Yue when she suddenly thought of something. Shang Xiao took a gold-inlaid jade of a Buddha pendant from her neck and stuffed it into Lang Yue's hand with the letter as she said, "And this." This was the gift that older sister Shu Qing had given her when she was on the northern place, so she must remember it!

"Now you go pack up, set off tomorrow and rush to the East China Sea port! I will ask Uncle Zhong to arrange a boat for you to go to Hai Yu. If they ask, I will say that I asked you to go back to Piao Miao manor to help Uncle Zhong handle the affairs."

"Hmm!" Putting the letterhead and pendant away carefully, Lang Yue turned around and walked out of the room.

Closing her hands tightly, Shang Xiao prayed in her heart over and over again that the wind and the waves would not be strong these days, and that older sister Lang Yue could smoothly get to Hai Yu. She hoped that older sister Lang Yue could find older sister Shu Qing smoothly. She hoped that older sister Shu Qing would be willing to help them. And she hoped...

Older sister, you must be persistent and you must wait for our rescue!

Sian's notes:

Shang Xiao is growing up right before our eyes... 🥰