

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

Ch 152.3

Going Back to Where

'I only used one moment to fall, but spent a whole life to remember it.' This was Qi Yue's last written words. In the note, it was full of her coldness, her loneliness, her disdain and her determination. He was really the man who betrayed Qi Yue at that time. He did not really look like a pedantic person at all.

Murong Shu Qing could not help but ask, "I want to ask you on her behalf, why did you betray her?"

The sound of Murong Shu Qing's voice had just trailed off, when the free and cultured man immediately shouted, "I did not betray her!"

Everyone was frightened and Shang Jun was even more concerned as Master had never been out of control like this.

After a very long time, Jing Shu suppressed his heartache that had been continuously plaguing him and answered with a heavy voice, "That year I left in a hurry because of Master's summons. I left a letter to her, but I did not know why when I came back, she was already a married woman."

Murong Shu Qing sighed; was it just a misunderstanding? With a few words, it was already enough to make people's feelings to break into pieces. Qi Yue had been dead for a long time, but the person who was left behind, continued to bear the pain from the heartbreak. Putting it like that, how could it be summarized as one word, a misunderstanding?! It was just missing the opportunity.....

Wei Na also thought that Jing Shu was pitiful; she looked at him still clasping the broken jade as an important treasure, because he still could not forget the person whom he loved. She admired this type of person the most, so walking over to Jing Shu's side, Wei Na said with a clear voice, "You should not feel sad anymore, even though the jade was broken, she was still inside your heart. The beautiful woman is in your heart, so why do you need to long for her anymore?!"

The beautiful woman was in your heart, so why did you need to long for her anymore....

Jing Shu suddenly laughed out loud, Jing Shu ah Jing Shu, his intelligent knowledge was actually inferior to the way this young girl looked at things.

Jing Shu slowly took the broken jade and put the pieces in the coffin along with the exquisite jade while the purple light was enveloping the coffin. The energy wall was clearly weaker, but it was still in existence.

Propping her hands on her cheeks, Wei Na mumbled to herself, "What do we do now? There is another piece that has not been found, this is really a waste."

Feeling more and more restless in her heart, and even though Murong Shu Qing was not willing, she had no choice but to say, "The final piece should be with me here, right?"

At Murong Shu Qing's hand?! No wonder she could match up the exquisite jade, since it was on her hand, why did she not say anything earlier?! Xuanyuan Yi faintly felt that something was wrong, but he could not say anything again.

Putting the exquisite jade and broken jade into Murong Shu Qing's hand, Jing Shu said, "Shu Qing, you try to see if you can take it out."

"Alright." Lightly raising her wrist together with the other jades that were in her hand, the bracelet gave out a light purple ray. Murong Shu Qing stretched out her hand inside the coffin; she did not receive any resistance at all and could take out the small wooden box easily.

"Jun." Once she put the small wooden box in Shang Jun's hand, Murong Shu Qing finally breathed a sigh of relief, but she was faced with Shang Jun's astonished face that was staring at her.

After the small wooden box was taken out, a golden ray came out of the coffin and a dreadful whirlpool appeared behind Murong Shu Qing. She was actually surrounded by the golden ray all over and it seemed that she could disappear at any time.

"Qing!" Shang Jun was shocked and wanted to grab Murong Shu Qing's hand, but before he could approach, he was already shocked by a great power and fell onto the ground.

"Qing Er!" Practically at the same time, Xuanyuan Yi also stepped forward but was also unable to approach Murong Shu Qing at all.

This power was so great that Shang Jun whose body was already full of wounds, could not even get up anymore. Qin Xiu Zhi took him into his embrace to protect him and lowly asked, "Shang Jun, how are you doing?"

Shang Jun lowly gasped and shook his head. The unusually dark amber color showed on his hand.

"Qing Er." Xuanyuan Yi was knocking at the side of the energy wall that had covered Murong Shu Qing like a crazy man, but every time, the great power became more and more difficult to deal with. After several more attempts, the corner of Xuanyuan Yi's mouth was already bloody, but he only had Murong Shu Qing in his eyes so it did not appear that he felt any pain. Every time he approached, he would be thrown out again and again.

Murong Shu Qing's feet felt liked they were nailed to the ground as she could not move, and upon seeing Xuanyuan Yi repeatedly and ferociously get thrown to the ground over and over again while his mouth was vomiting blood on the golden surface, Murong Shu Qing shouted in distress, "Yi, do not bump into it again!!"

"Qing Er...." Xuanyuan Yi staggered and got up; his eyes were already fuzzy, but he was still approaching step by step towards that figure who was in his heart.