

This chapter was translated for <http://nuttyisprocrasinating.wordpress.com> only. And only for those people who don't mind reading unprofessional translation that was being translated FREELY at the translator's, editor's and proofreaders' own free times.

San Er's Love Story (Part 1)

Today was the wedding day of the third son of the Xiao family. In Tian Cheng City, all of the inns and restaurants were free to entertain. The Xiao family paid the bill so they could eat and drink as much as they could. In addition to the royal family, there was only the Xiao family.

The door made of old red sandalwood looked magnificent and extravagant. Four rows of big red lanterns were hung high, illuminating the front of the Xiao residence. Big red flowers were hung on the chests of the two jade-carved spirit beasts that were associated with wealth and treasure. It was a bit ridiculous, but looked very festive. The red silk could be seen everywhere and the residual red left by the firecrackers set off the beaming atmosphere of the Xiao residence.

The Xiao family rushed people over to lead guests into the inner hall; there was an endless stream of guests and it was very lively.

Two tall figures appeared outside the gate of the Xiao residence. Their simple attire was rather dissatisfying compared to the other guests who were gorgeously dressed in the luxurious atmosphere. However, no one felt anything wrong, as their eyes followed them involuntarily.

Liu Guang who was forced to arrange things outside the door, quickly greeted them respectfully once he saw their faces clearly.

In the lobby, it was full of people waiting for the lady who was worthy to be with the third son of the Xiao family. Xiao Zong Qing who was dressed in a red python robe, was high-spirited, with a smile on his handsome face. Liu Guang hurried over and after whispering a few words, Xiao Zong Qing was at first stunned, but then walked to the backyard with a look of ecstasy while he ignored the other guests in the room.

The lobby was full of people, but the festivity of the house in the backyard was... a mess.

The big red head covering was slanted to the ground and the golden phoenix crown studded with pearls was also abandoned at the corner of the bed. In front of a table full of delicacies, a busy hand shuttled among the various dishes and the person seemed to be busy eating them. The wine glass beside her was abandoned as she grabbed the wine jar with her slender hand and drank the wine heroically.

After a while, Yan Rui was finally full, wiped her mouth clean, and let out a long sigh of satisfaction...

Gosh! Getting married was really not something people like to do!!

She had been busy from the early morning until now, dressing up again and again, praying for blessings and welcoming relatives, and she would have to go to the ceremony later!! Could she say, stop playing now!?

Woo woo woo woo.....

That phoenix crown weighed at least thirty pounds! It made her head hurt and she still knew some martial arts. If it were an ordinary woman, her neck would probably be broken!!

Thinking of putting it on again later, Yan Rui's heart was pounding. She was determined not to suffer this kind of crime again. She swiftly put all the gold and beautiful jade on her body, and when her hand touched the egg-sized blood amber in front of her clothes, Yan Rui's face revealed the first sweet smile tonight.

She and he knew each other because of this bloody amber. Thinking of how fiery they were when they first met, Yan Rui couldn't help laughing again.

It was the summer of a year ago...

Xiao Zong Qing had a lot of businesses that he was involved in. Second brother's health was getting worse and worse, so Xiao Zong Qing finally took over the family's business and walked to the largest Xiao family pawnshop in Tian Cheng City. When he just entered the pawnshop, he could already hear the sharp clamor of a woman's voice, "You old man, don't you know what a good thing is?! This is a thousand-year-old bloody amber!! You are only trying to give me fifty-two taels!"

Staring at the old man with a 'bitter and mean' face behind the high platform, Yan Rui was very angry. If she hadn't run out of money she brought from home, she wouldn't try to pawn the thousand-year-old bloody amber that her master gave her to use as her emergency money. When senior brother sent out the money, she could redeem it back, but who would have thought that this dead old man would blackmail her!!! Fifty-two taels! Did he make a mistake? In normal times, she wouldn't sell it for 5,000 taels!!

The shopkeeper was unmoved and hummed, "I tell you little girl, this is a pawnshop. In my eyes, your stuff is only worth that price. If you want to pawn it, you can do it. If you don't want to pawn it, please leave!" This was a pawn shop business so he had to keep prices down. What an ignorant little girl!

The shopkeeper's aloof appearance made Yan Rui feel half-dead, so she pointed at him and cursed, "What a shit pawnshop! If this girl didn't happen to be short of money, she wouldn't pawn this. You still take advantage of other's misfortune and deliberately lower the price for this item. You're simply a profiteer!!"

This little girl was still having fun, wasn't she!! She was just messing around here and they still had to do business?! He had seen many such people, so the shopkeeper shouted, "Come here, make her leave!"

"Yes." Three or four strong men surrounded Yan Rui.

"You lost in talking, so you want to use violence?!" Yan Rui rolled up her sleeves and shouted, "Will this aunt be afraid of you? Come on! I'll smash your black shop!!"

The words had just fell when a few of them started to move. Yan Rui had learned martial arts from her master since she was a child. Although she was used to being lazy and was not an opponent of the senior brothers, but the other side was only servants. So, she would still be able to handle them with ease and several people were quickly thrown to the ground by her.